Initial greetings, hello everyone. I am thankful to contribute to this doujin!
This reprint is the complete edition of the September doujin "Summer Vacation with the Goddess (Start)". It's a little thicker than normal. If everyone enjoys this, I would be deeply honored.

Originally, I just wanted to draw some summer-themed MadoHomu illustrations (like the cover illustration). But as my imagination ran wild, it evolved into a comic.
The couple, as normal middle schoolers, living a carefree adolescent summer, I really want to see that~ That's what I thought (゜-゜) It ended up as a full doujin about summer vacation...? Something like that.

In the original series, Homura transferred in spring and repeated a single month over and over again. After that ended, Homura and Madoka were immediately separated and never had a chance together. Only in the Audio CD timeline (Moemura timeline), did the five have a summer camp (the so called beach episode) together...

Without realizing it, the story end up over twenty pages long (and with a serious tone too). How that happened surprised even myself... (゜-゜)

Thinking about the couple's outfit, I ended up drawing pony-tails. Madoka had two ribbons, so I thought each wearing a matching one would look cute. Also, the dress that Madoka wore (Page 20) was also borrowed from Homura. It's the same one that Homura wore in the cover.

Thanks to the movie, MadoHomu and Dark Madoka's popularity has been irresistible (’▽`*)
